

About the Instructors

Rev. Dr. Don L. Davis is the Director of The Urban Ministry Institute. He received a B.A. in Biblical Studies from Wheaton College, an M.A. in Systematic Theology from the Wheaton Graduate School, and holds a Ph.D. in Theology and Ethics from the University of Iowa School of Religion.

Dr. Davis has taught as professor of religion and theology at a number of colleges and seminaries, including Wheaton College, St. Ambrose University, and the Houston Graduate School of Theology. He has served over twenty-five years with World Impact, an interdenominational missions agency dedicated to evangelism, discipleship, and urban church planting among the inner cities of America. A frequent speaker at national conventions and conferences, Don also serves as World Impact's Vice President of Leadership Development. He is a Staley Lecturer and a member of the American Academy of Religion.

Rev. Terry Cornett (Bachelor of Science, Master of Arts, Master of Arts in Religion) is the Academic Dean of The Urban Ministry Institute. Terry holds degrees from The University of Texas at Austin, the Wheaton College Graduate School, and the C.P. Haggard School of Theology at Azusa Pacific University.

Terry is also a long-time urban missionary with World Impact. He has served in Omaha, Wichita, and Los Angeles, where he has been involved in church planting, teaching, and discipling ministries.
